Munro Takes Post As Lynn Hospital Head

Harry E. Munro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Munro of 69 Harlow St., has assumed the position of administrator of Union Hospital in Lynn.

A member of Arlington Post 39 of the American Legion, Mr. Munro has been in medical administration work for years and is well known. His home has been on Harlow St. many years, but he recently moved with his wife and child to Newton Highlands, and now expects to live in Lynn.

Mr. Munro trained at Mass. General Hospital and during the war served overseas three years with the Sixth General Hospital Unit. He held a commission in the Army Medical Administrative Corp. and was executive officer of an Army hospital in Italy for a year prior to his return to civilian life.

During the last two years he has been a hospital inspector for the Veterans Administration. In accepting his appointment at a meeting of the Union Hospital Corporation, Mr. Munro said: "I am grateful for the opportunity to administer the fine health services of Union Hospital and, as new, modern methods are evolved in the hospital field, we shall make them available to the people in the Greater Lynn area."

Almost half of all Navy Officers on active duty have risen from enlisted service, Bureau of Naval Personnel statistics show.

Architects are still busy drawing up plans for the new $580,000 public school to be built in the Mysticside section, but Chairman Harold M. Estabrook of the building committee told the Press this week he fully expected construction work to start in the fall.

Plans for electrical and plumbing work have been completed, Mr. Estabrook said, but detailed plans for steel work remain to be drawn up. He expects all plans to be ready in about 30 days.

This means that the committee will not be in a position to advertise for bids much before the middle of August.

Asked if it would be another 30 days—or Sept. 15—before construction starts, Mr. Estabrook said: "We hope to get under way before then. If the bids are within the appropriated figure, the contract should quickly be awarded."

He said he was well pleased with the painstaking care being taken in drawing plans for the new elementary school, but architects at the moment are "extremely busy, and the drawing of plans has taken longer than we expected."

The new school is to be built at Columbia and Stowescroft Rds. The name of the new school has not yet been definitely chosen. The name 'Bishop' has been suggested, but for the time being members of Mr. Estabrook's committee refer to the project as the 'Mystic Side' school project.

It will be up to the school committee to decide on a name.

Three women, out on a shopping trip to Arlington Center and looking about for a parking space, narrowly missed death Wednesday morning when their car was run down by a Boston and Maine freight train at the unprotected Swan Place railroad crossing.

All three escaped with a severe shaking up, walking out of the damaged car without a scratch.

Only the fact that the train was proceeding very slowly, and that it was able to come to a quick stop, prevented a triple fatality.

Driving the car was Mrs. Ann Livoti, 46, of 4 Richfield Rd., and she was accompanied by Mrs. Olga Spadaro, 45, of 51 Richfield Rd., and the latter's mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Spadaro, 66, of 76 Gordon St., Allston.

The scene of the accident, which happened at 10:20, was about 200 feet from the main railroad crossing in Arlington Center.

Mrs. Livoti, giving her version of the accident, told the Press that the trio were headed for the Stop and Shop. Unable to find a parking place in front of the store on Mass. Ave., they drove up Pleasant St., around by Swan Place and thus headed back toward Mass. Ave.

She claimed that none of them heard the approaching train.

They were crossing the tracks, she said, when a police officer blew his whistle and motioned to them. He wanted to hurry them off the tracks—out of the train's path—but Mrs. Livoti says she believed he was warning her to go back.

"I thought that maybe it was a one-way street now, since the parking meters have been installed," she said, "so I stopped the car, put it into reverse and was just starting to back up when the train hit us."

The locomotive struck the car near its left center, but the engineer, Cecil Nickerson of 28 Medford St., Malden—had spotted the auto in time and had applied the brakes just before reaching the crossing.

The car was pushed less than four feet. The three women scrambled out the door on the right.

2 Here Join Air Corps

Two Arlington men, Gregory White of 81 Columbia Rd., and Norman G. MacNeill of 17 Revere St., have enlisted in the Army Air Corps.

Both have been initially assigned to the Lackland Air Base at San Antonio, Texas, for basic training.

Messrs. White and MacNeill enlisted through Sgt. Joseph Mitchell, a lifelong Arlington resident, who is currently in charge of the recruiting station in Medford City Hall.

Two of the town's new parking meters along with an electric light pole, were knocked down when a car operated by Charles E. Donovan of 50 Dorothy Rd., got out of control Tuesday afternoon and ran up on the sidewalk opposite 220 Mass. Ave.

The car not only knocked down the meters and light pole, but also damaged a trolley company pole.

Donovan escaped with comparatively minor injuries. He was taken to Symmes Hospital by police, and treated for lacerations about the chin.

The car, considerably damaged, had to be towed away. The accident happened at 3 p. m.

Barker, Tobiason, Magnuson, Chace Named By Selectmen To Direct Building Of Homes For Vets

Four outstanding Arlington residents—a lawyer, an engineer and two men in the building field—were chosen Monday by the selectmen to serve on the new Housing Authority which will direct the construction of low-rent veterans' homes here.

The appointees are: Myron D. Chace, 74 Grandview Rd.; W. Dale Barker, 168 Jason St.; Hans Tobiason, 191 Newport St., and Harold E. Magnuson, 10 Upland Rd.

Notice has been sent to the State Housing Board of the appointment of the four local members, and the state board will now select a fifth member of the local authority. As soon as this fifth appointment has been made, the new group will hold its organization meeting and proceed with the preliminaries of the housing program, which is to be financed by state funds.

Myron D. Chace

Mr. Chace is employed as toll program engineer for the N. E. Telephone and Telegraph Co. In this capacity, he is responsible for the development of plans for additions to the company's toll plant to meet the increasing needs of the system. He is a veteran of World Wars I and II. In world war I he served in the Navy and saw service with mine sweepers off the coast of England in World War II, during the early stages, he was selected as the representative of the telephone company to assist the Army in arranging for air warning service and later was assigned and saw active service as a Lieut. Colonel with Signal Corps in the Pacific area. He holds the commission of colonel in the U. S. Army Reserve and is a graduate of Worcester Tech.

John J. Buckley Dies After Falling From Maine Hotel Window

Many friends and acquaintances were shocked this week to learn of the tragic death in Maine of John J. Buckley, 43, of 328 Park Ave.

Mr. Buckley, a travelling salesman for the Hickok Belt Co., was fatally injured Tuesday morning when he fell from a third-story window of a hotel in Waterville, Maine. He had stayed at the hotel overnight while on a business trip.

According to Mrs. Buckley, who returned home Wednesday after going to Maine to arrange for the body's removal here, Mr. Buckley was preparing to go out on his day's business when, going to his room, he found that a maid was busy in the room.

Waiting for the maid to finish, he sat on the low sill of a hall window—the sill being only about a foot from the floor. In some unexplained manner he fell against the screen, which gave way, and an elevator operator saw his body topple out.

He died at a hospital later that day.

A native of Brighton, Mr. Buckley had resided here with his wife and son, Richard, 11, for 12 years. Funeral services were being arranged as this issue went to press, the services probably will be held Friday, at St. James Church.

ices with military honors. The three are:

William T. Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Carter of 14 Walnut Court, who was killed in action in France Nov. 10, 1944.

Leo Lomanno, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Lomanno of 65 Paul Revere Rd., killed in action in Germany April 8, 1945.

Robert T. Hannabury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Hannabury of 69 Chandler St., who died in Luxembourg Oct. 26, 1945.

The bodies of three more of Arlington's World War 2 dead are on the way home for reburial, and members of Arlington Post 39 of the American Legion are making arrangements for re-committal services.

The history of Arlington (first known as Merotomy, and then West Cambridge) goes back to the early days of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. The first grist mill in the Bay Colony was erected here; Arlington also had the first free public library in the state. The men of the town answered Paul Revere's call at daybreak, engaged in the heaviest fighting on that memorable day and made the first capture of British men and supplies in the revolution.

Our Semi-Birthday

With this issue, the Arlington Press is six months old. Looking back on those first six months, we have much for which to be thankful.

From the first, the Press has been warmly received. It unquestionably has filled a need, and today it is solidly established—an accepted and appreciated voice in the community.

We HAVE been sincere in our efforts to give Arlington an unbiased, reliable and INTERESTING newspaper, and because we have gone in for mass circulation, advertisers have found it profitable to buy space in the Press.

The fact that we own our own complete printing plant (on Bacon St.) has, of course, been a great help in producing the Press quickly and economically.

We are NOT surfeited with self-satisfaction; there is much we want to do that we haven't done yet. But the Press has at least got off to a decidedly good start. Its progress, in some respects phenomenal, has surprised many.

There is no magic formula behind this. The policy of the Press is friendly, and that in itself has made warm friends. As a self-respecting newspaper interested in the community we have raised a critical pen, at times—but always, we believe, constructively. And our criticisms have been leavened with praise for what we thought to be praiseworthy.

We are NOT reformers. Our job in the main is to report what goes on, and occasionally to voice suggestions. We are even more firmly convinced than we were six months ago that, essentially, Arlington is one of the finest communities in America.

We shall continue doing the best job we can—in a spirit of friendliness and unstanding. And, as we already have on several occasions—in behalf of "the average man."

Lower Fire Insurance?

One of the last official recommendations of former Fire Chief Daniel Tierney, made just before his retirement, should—we believe—come in for early action.

Chief Tierney recommended, now that the fire department has a much larger personnel, that lower fire insurance rates might be obtained for Arlington property owners.

He suggested that the selectmen take the initiative.

The process is simple: It is merely a matter of contacting the insurance underwriters, and having the local situation reviewed. Such a review might very conceivably result in substantial reductions in fire premiums.

Honor 18 As Blood Donors

Eighteen members of Arlington Post 39 of the American Legion were awarded blood donor certificates by Post Commander William McKeever this week.

The 18 recently journeyed to Cushing General Hospital to donate to the blood bank. This was the fourth time this year that post members donated and Chairman Victor Ellis of the blood donor committee is well pleased with the response to his appeal for donations.

At Tuesday's post meeting the following members were elected as delegates to the state Legion convention to be held in Worcester Aug. 19, 20 and 21.

William McKeever, John J. Sullivan, William McDonald, George Bonney, William Collins, Thomas Muray, Robert D. Unger, Richard D. Noy, Elmer Seubner, John Malcolm.

riding on the left side of the front seat, was the most seriously shaken. Mrs. Mary Spadaro was riding in the rear.

"None of us heard the train. We're certainly lucky to have escaped being killed," commented Mrs. Livoti.

The car involved in the crash was a 1948 Pontiac, bought three months ago. It was towed to the McManus garage.

High School Boy, 17, Loses Eye After Being Hit By Batted Ball

His left eye pierced by a jagged piece of his eyeglasses when he was struck by a batted ball, 17-year-old William Murray Jr., of 19 Perkins St., underwent an operation at Mass. General Hospital Saturday during which surgeons, after striving 24 hours to save the eye, were forced to remove it.

Young Murray, a high school student and outstanding as an athlete, was injured while playing in an after-supper "pick up" game at Robbins Park Friday.

Murray was playing third base. There was a softball game going on nearby, and the softball landed near the baseball diamond.

Someone shouted for one of the players to pick up the softball, and Murray turned his head—presumably to pick up the softball.

At that moment the player at bat, William Meehan, hit a line drive down the third base line and the ball struck Murray, breaking his eyeglasses. With his head turned, he had no chance to get his glove up.

Anthony E. Roderick of 17 Eastern Avenue, former Boston Park League star, who was pitching in the game, hurried the injured youth to Symmes Hospital in his car, which was parked at the field.

Meanwhile, the hospital had been notified and doctors were waiting when he reached there. He was given emergency treatment at Symmes, and then he was taken to Mass. General accompanied by Dr. Buckley, who supervised the operation performed there.

The unfortunate boy's family—he has a younger brother, Jackie, aged 12—was consoled by a statement of attending physicians that, though he lost his eye, young Murray was fortunate in one way: his glasses absorbed the force of the impact, and possibly saved him from instant death.

The Press was informed yesterday that the youth might be discharged from hospital Thursday or Friday of this week. Plans already have been made to fit him with a plastic eye and Murray is said to be looking forward to playing football next fall. He was a guard on last year's high school team, and has been slated for a halfback position this year.

Murray was an infielder on the school's baseball team in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. McKelvie, of Longfellow Rd., and their daughter Janemarie, are spending their vacation at their summer home on Sebago Lake in Maine.

Michael Kellys Are Guests Of 50 Friends At Surprise Party On 25th Wedding Anniversary

Married in Arlington 25 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kelly of 24 Argyle Rd., were happy guests at a surprise party tendered them by some 50 friends Sunday at the D. A. V. hall.

There was a large cake, and the couple were presented with a substantial purse. Mrs. Kelly also received a corsage. Refreshments and dancing contributed to a very enjoyable occasion.

Mr. Kelly, a native of Arlington, is an engineer and has always lived here. Mrs. Kelly was born in Ireland. Both are popular, respected citizens.

A committee of their friends which arranged the surprise party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of 180 Appleton St., Mr. and Mrs. Axel Etickson of 42 Brooks Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Arnold of 26 Argyle Rd.

Summer Bible School At Trinity Baptist Holds Final Session

A total of 132 children were registered in the daily vacation bible school conducted at Trinity Baptist Church from June 28 to July 9. This was the school's 11th year, and one of its most successful.

The school director was, Mrs. Milton Bretscher and the theme was "Our Church." The kindergarten studied about, "The Friendly Church," under the direction of Mrs. Charles Crocker, the primary group "This Is Our Church," under Mrs. Whitehouse, the Juniors "We Need Churches," under Mrs. Duncan Campbell.

Twenty-two volunteer teachers were on hand each day to greet and serve the children.

Thursday, July 8, was demonstration night and the young people proudly and earnestly performed with their classes specially planned programs by each department.

Songs and hymns of the church, original poems and prayers, a display and explanation of symbols used in the church, a drum call to worship with hand-made replicas of African drums and an African family answering the call to worship to a Christian mission station. The primary and junior departments are sending Bibles, written

Crowds Tax Facilities At Reservoir Beach

Record crowds have been departing at Reservoir Beach during the present heat wave, the park department said this week.

Although beach facilities have been heavily taxed, the crowds have been capably handled by the staff of lifeguards and matrons.

During the past two weeks, free swimming instruction has been given by Johnny Temple, Red Cross instructor. This now is to be followed up by further instruction to be given by Miles McNally daily except Mondays, to further the Learn to Swim program.

Said a park department announcement:

"There are still many children in Arlington who cannot swim, and parents are urged to give their children this splendid opportunity for good, sound instruction."

Bethrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Bates of 195 Westminster Ave. announce the engagement of their daughter, Adelaide Bates Cauble, to Robert A. Nolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher A. Nolan of 24 Avon Place. An August wedding is planned.

In the native tongues, to Africa, China, Japan and Palestine. This is made possible by their foreign missions contributions.

Paper bunnies, oilcloth stuffed dogs and jig-saw puzzles, all made by the children, were given to the pastor, Rev. Lewis W. Williamson, to be given to other children and grown-up shutins, during his visits around the parish.

The Mothers Study Group has expressed the hope that this new class be definitely added to the yearly curriculum.

School closed Friday, July 9, with a song fest, led by Rev. Williamson, an ice cream party and movies, which was enjoyed by all.

Bathers Refuse To Quit Beach At 9 P.M. Closing; Cops Called

Some folks like Reservoir Beach so well they hate to leave the place.

Monday night, at 9, a call came to police headquarters from life-guard Heany at the beach.

"I'm trying to close up the beach for the day," he said, "but the people just won't leave."

A policeman was sent to the scene to persuade the remaining bathers to leave so that the wire enclosure about the beach could be locked up.

Sneak Thief Climbs Window To Bedroom, Gets Wallet And $75

Some sneak thief climbed through an open bedroom window on Rawson Rd., Sunday night, grabbed a wallet containing $75 cash from a bureau top and made good his escape.

The theft was at the home of George C. Schultz, at 128 Rawson

Rd. Mr. Schultz told police that he placed his wallet on the bureau when he retired Sunday night. It was gone when he awoke Monday morning.

His bedroom window he said, had been left open. It was unscreened.

Barrel Of Fish Poses Problem For The Police

Policemen are called upon to perform many unusual tasks.

One of the most unusual came at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning, when Patrolman Armando Lucarelli phoned headquarters: "They've delivered a barrel of fish outside the A & P store, on Court St., and the bottom's broken. I'm afraid the fish will be all over the street before the store opens."

A police car was dispatched to the scene, and several cops tussled with the barrel until they had it secure enough, for the time being.

500 Youngsters To Attend Sox Game In Boston Free, July 21

Five hundred Arlington youngsters are in for a treat on Wednesday, July 21, when they will be transported to Fenway Park to attend—absolutely free—a Red Sox vs. White Sox game.

5-0900, or to Park Sup't Daniel McFadden.

In all, 4000 tickets for the game are being distributed to youngsters in Boston, Arlington and elsewhere.

Five hundred tickets for the game have been handed to Harry Keenan, local realtor and boy scout executive, and arrangements are now being made to recruit the 500 lucky youngsters from among the ranks of the Cub Scouts and younger boys and girls at the playgrounds.

At the moment, Mr. Keenan is particularly concerned about transportation arrangements. He hopes many business and professional men will volunteer the use of their cars. Anyone doing so will, of course, also see the game; each volunteer will carry as many youngsters as his car will hold, and more or less shepherd the kiddies.

Inasmuch as the game is scheduled for a Wednesday, when most stores close, Mr. Keenan feels that many merchants will be willing to cooperate. Offers of cars may be phoned to Mr. Keenan at Arlington

2 Attempts At Burglary

Two attempts at burglary were reported Monday.

Patrolman Schaber, making his rounds at 6 p. m., found marks of a jimmy on a window at 691 Mass. Ave.

Earlier that day, at 5 a. m., Patrolman Knowles found evidence of an attempt to enter the Texaco station at 264 Mass. Ave.

I Wonder?

I WONDER how that cement block came to be in the middle of Henderson St., the other day?

I WONDER who forgot to turn off the radio when locking up the Barber Shop at 207 Broadway Thursday night?

I WONDER who was the American Legion ball player who lost his uniform shirt on the high school field Saturday?

I WONDER why SOME restaurants fail to have iced coffee on hand, on warm days such as we had this week?

I WONDER if the realtor who has been dropping nickels in parking meters "to save folks from paying fines" knows there's only one flaw in his generous gesture, and that is that no car is supposed to remain parked at the same spot more than an hour?

I WONDER if all Arlington wasn't proud this week of Joe Coleman, when in the St. Louis all-star game he pitched 11 men without allowing a single hit?

I WONDER if it doesn't look a bit unusual to see a parking meter near a fire hydrant?

I WONDER if those weren't three very lucky women who were able to walk of this car uninjured after their machine as struck by a freight train in Arlington Center Wednesday morning?

I WONDER if that wasn't a smooth operator who walked off with a $116. camera at the N. E. Photo shop Monday?

I WONDER if who'll win that television set the AMVETS are giving away tomorrow night—and who'll be chosen, at the same event, as "Miss Arlington"?

I WONDER if some of the folks who patronize Reservoir Beach—notably those who refused to leave at closing time. Monday night—would like to see the beach opened later in the evening than 9?

I WONDER if friends of Miss Martha Louise Kelley, of 54 Mass. Ave., aren't sorry to learn she entered Mt. Auburn Hospital last week?

I WONDER how many have noticed the clippings from the Press posted on the bulletin board at the library?

I WONDER if the garage and plot of ground opposite the Press office (which is up for sale now) wouldn't make a splendid off-street bus terminal.

I WONDER if they're still finding slugs in the parking meters?

St. Agnes CYO Scores Over

St. Peter's
By Paul M. Asselin

Last Friday at Spy Pond Field, the St. Agnes C. Y. O. Intermediate looked tops in conquering St. Peter was a small lead but looked

A fast run in the first by St. Peter as a small lead but looked mighty big till St. Agnes' fifth. In this inning, after Tom Coughlin and Mike Keefe had reached base, Warren Ryan belted a long triple to send them in. Jack Doran followed with a single to score Ryan. In the sixth as Frank Randoni was being tracked down between second and third, Murphy stole home to draw a wild throw on which Randoni also scored.

Tom Coughlin won his fifth straight for St. Agnes to yield only four hits, one walk, but fanned eleven. Miller of St. Peter gave up six hits, three walks, and struck out five.

Bids Sought To Level Peirce, Winn Buildings For New Parking Lot

Arlington's new public parking lot, at Mass. Ave. and Mystic St., may be ready for use right after Labor Day.

Bids are now being sought for demolition of the old buildings on the property, formerly owned by the Peirce & Winn Co., and it is hoped to have the wreckers at work very shortly.

Police Chief Archie Bullock has requested the selectmen to expedite the work as much as possible so that the parking lot may be in use after Labor Day, when Arlingtonians now on vacation will be returning home and the problem of parking will be more acute.

Doherty, Trolley Conductor 35 Years, On His First Visit To Native Ireland In 37 Years

John Doherty of 99 Bow St., for 35 years a trolley car conductor, is enjoying a visit to his native Ireland—his first visit since he left there 37 years ago.

Mr. Doherty flew from Logan Airport, and his first stop was in Glasgow, Scotland, to see one of his brothers, Patrick. He was scheduled next to travel to Donegal in northern Ireland to visit his older brother, Edward.

The local man's daughter, Catherine, a former WAVE, has been visiting kinfolk in Ireland the past year. She is expected home in August, while her father will fly back in September.

Dr. Towle Is Witness To Dual Fatality

Dr. George F. Towle, chief surgeon at Symmes Arlington Hospital, was a witness to a double fatality Saturday when a plane from the Bedford Air Base crashed on Dr. Towle's estate in Carlisle, killing two Air Force reserve fliers.

The accident happened in an orchard off Route 25, about five miles from the air base which the fliers had left a half hour before. The crash was witnessed also from a window by Mrs. Towle.

Dr. Towle and another man ran to the scene, while Mrs. Towle notified the police. They found one body thrown clear of the wreckage, and another in the rear cockpit. Both had been killed instantly. The pilot, in the front cockpit, had been seen struggling to get out as the plane plummeted to earth.

The victims were identified as Lt. Kenneth P. Pushee, pilot, of East Kingston, N.H., and Lt. Grant D. Bowker, 24, of Worcester. Both saw service as fliers in World War 2.

Girl And Boy Are Injured At Beach

Two youngsters—a girl of seven and a boy of 18—were painfully but not seriously injured at Reservoir Beach over the weekend. Both, incidentally, were residents of Somerville.

Alice Lees, 7, of 14 Stickney St., Somerville, suffered a laceration of the left foot Saturday. After receiving first aid she was conveyed by police here to the Somerville line, whence a Somerville police car transported her home.

On Sunday, police were called to the beach to take Leon Scott, 18, of 16 Waterhouse St., Somerville to Symmes Hospital for treatment of a badly lacerated left knee.

Arlington Auto, Stolen In Lexington, 'Thoughtfully' Is Driven, Abandoned Here

An Arlington man's car which was stolen in Lexington Friday was "thoughtfully" driven back into Arlington by the thief or thieves, and abandoned here.

The car, owned by Thomas N. Mead of 49 Wollaston Ave., was found abandoned here by Patrolman Arthur Guarante shortly after its theft had been reported. Mr. Mead did not have far to go to reclaim the machine.

High School Boy, 16, And Chum In Rescue Of Woman In River

Sixteen-year-old William Scanlon of 90 Jason St., who'll be a senior at Arlington High School next Fall, found that his skill as a swimmer came in handy last Thursday, when he helped to save from a river in East Braintree a woman who was trying to commit suicide.

Young Scanlon, who with his family is staying at their summer home in North Cohasset, was driving a friend to Braintree when they saw the young woman leap into the river from a bridge.

An East Braintree man was first on the spot, but he said he couldn't swim so Scanlon and his friend, John Moore of 1091 Center St., Jamaica Plain, took off their shoes and dove 30 feet into the river.

Grabbing the woman, they waded with her to shore. The police arrived within a few moments, and she was taken to a hospital for treatment for shock and immersion.

During the rescue, Scanlon lost one of his shoes and also his wallet, which fortunately contained only about $2.

Library's Summer Group To Meet

A first meeting of the Junior Library Everyland Club will be held at the Robbins Library tomorrow afternoon, Friday, at 4 o'clock.

There will be story-telling and talks on books and interesting places on the map.

A Belated Celebration

Firecrackers were still popping in Arlington as late as Saturday—five days after the Fourth.

From the proprietor of Rawson's Pharmacy came a report to police that boys were setting off "giant" crackers near the store.

Everything was serene when police reached the scene.

Offer To Help In Civil Exams

Announcement was made at the Robbins Library this week that the library is in a position to help "with worthwhile material" those planning to take civil service exams for police lieutenant and sergeant and for town sealer of weights and measures.

Some of the material has been loaned to the library by the state.

Water Rescue Technique

12-Event Swim Meet At Reservoir Beach Slated For Friday

With 12 events on the schedule and many entries already received an exciting swim meet—the first this season—is on the program for Reservoir Beach in Arlington Heights tomorrow, Friday.

The meet, with events for boys and girls of all ages, will get under way at 2 o'clock. Entries will be received up to noon, and may be made with Myles McNally, swimming instructor, or any of the life-guards.

WITH 'SOMETHING GOING ON EVERY MINUTE,' PLAYGROUNDS ATTRACTING RECORD CROWDS

With two new playgrounds and much new equipment in use, attendance records are being broken in Arlington's public playgrounds this summer. Especially popular, the park department reports, are the new Summer St. and Robbins Farm playgrounds.

New equipment in use this year includes merry-go-rounds, horizontal ladders and slides.

At Robbins Farm last Friday night the senior baseball team challenged the Tower Association Old Timers to a game of softball. The Old Timers finally lost in a closely contested game, 19-17. Jaanice Meehan, age 10, won the checker champ title for girls while Tommy Galvin was the weekly checker champ for boys in the 10-13 age group. Vinnie Pearson is the midget checker champ.

At Florence Avenue, Bobby Maxwell, Linda Leet and Ann Ames are the winners of the first checker tournament. Artcraft projects during the week were paper aquariums, potato block prints, clay models, potholders and gimp bracelets. Senior, Junior and midget baseball teams were formed during the opening week of the program on the fourteen playgrounds. League competition began on Monday July 12, and each team in each league will play at least two games per week.

At Cemetery Street Playground 98 children registered the first week of activity. The wading pool is still very popular and the children let out a big cheer when the pool was officially opened last Tuesday afternoon. During story telling hour, Evelyn O'Keefe and Ellen Marie Wilson, ages 8 and 5 respectively, were very entertaining telling the stories of the Three Little Pigs and the Three Bears. Both stories were dramatized by the children.

At all playgrounds games have been arranged for all age groups.

At Waldo Road registrations were very heavy, and out of state guests were in attendance at the playground. Penny Gibson, age three and a half from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Bunny Bolton, age 5, from New York, and Davie and Donna Ivers, age 7 and 9, from Toronto, Canada, were at the playground during the week while visiting relatives here. Richie Fern, Jimmy and Larry Cullen, Anne Phettelace and Dickie Collins, all participated in the "Three Little Pigs," which was acted out by these children after Jimmy Cullen read it to the group during story hour. On Wednesday morning about 60 children from the Trinity Baptist Church Vacation School visited the playground and had a fine time on the various playground equipment.

The large crowds at North Union Street playground every afternoon were no doubt due to the large wading pool at this playground.

The new pingpong tables at all areas are always in use and both boys and girls are now practicing their various shots in preparation for a bang-up ping pong tournament.

Peter Bertolami, age 8, at Thorn. dike St. playground, drew special praise from the playground leaders for his clever clay models. Clay modeling is available to youngsters at every playground.

At Hardy Playground this week was one of competition in checkers and ping pong. Joyce Williams, Anne Fitzpatrick were girls checker champs in their age groups while Sandy Fitzgerald and Joan Warren were ping pong champs. For the boys, Steve Stephens, Bob McStravie carried off similar honors among the boys. Jimmy Coughlin was the first to find the "Treasure" in the first Treasure Hunt of the season.

Parents desiring information about the playground program are advised to phone the park department, Arlington 5-3156.

Mrs. Robert Chandler Jr., of Milton St., has returned from New Jersey, where she visited an aunt who is ill.

The daughter of a civilian employee at the Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla., had a chronic case of hiccoughs so she was taken for a ride in a plane which zoomed, rolled and snapped in an effort to scare her out of them. The ride didn't cure the girl, but it made her father pretty sick.

Car Crashes Trees After Blow Out

When a right front tire blew out on an auto being driven on Lowell St., at 2:51 Saturday morning, the machine hurtled into a couple of trees at the side of the street, opposite number 261.

The driver, Joseph Nutt of 49 Ridge St., Lexington, thought himself fortunate to have escaped uninjured. The car, however, was placed out of commission and he left it at the scene and went home, claiming it later that day.

Issue Permits To Build 3 Single Homes

Permits for the construction of three one-family houses have been issued during the past week by Building Inspector Paul Mossman.

They are as follows:

Paul Harrington, one-family dwelling with attached garage at 104 Bay State Rd., estimated cost $10,000; and one family dwelling at 108 Bay State Rd., cost $10,000; John Olsen, one-family dwelling at 123 High Haith Rd., at a cost of $8,000.

A permit was also issued to T. C. Moscatelli to construct an addition at 50 Williams St., at a cost of $800.

Play Staged At Branch Library

The first meeting this season of the Everyland Club of the Dallin Branch Library was held last Thursday afternoon, when a play "Jack and the Bean Stalk," was presented.

Denise Leary was mistress of ceremony, and in the cast were Margaret Duffy, Barbara Mandis, Beverly Roberts, Ruth Leary, Kenneth Leary and Joseph D'Arrigo.

Plans have been made for interesting season's program with reading and fun every Thursday afternoon.

Helene Kreem To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Kreem of 25 Lake St., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Helene Charlotte, to David Barsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barsky of 16 Almont St., Mattapan.

Miss Kreem is a 1943 graduate of Arlington High. Mr. Barsky served 30 months with the Army Medical Corps in Europe. A Fall wedding is planned.

Spy Pond Bathers Warned

Despite repeated warnings, many youngsters continue to bathe in Spy Pond at the foot of Linwood St.

Park Sup't Daniel J. McFadden again warned this week that swimming at this spot is hazardous "because of the dangerous and treacherous shore line in this area."

He said:

"Bathers now using this area do so at their own risk against the law. Signs posted to the effect that no swimming is allowed in this area have been erected by the board at various times, but are immediately destroyed."

"The police department will vigorously enforce this no swimming rule because of the danger involved."

Special Stamp On 50th N.Y.C. Anniversary

The Post Office Department will issue a 5-cent air mail stamp through the New York, N. Y. post office on July 31, to commemorate the Golden Anniversary of the city of New York.

The stamp will be of the small size, arranged vertically, with 100 subjects to the sheet and printed in red. The printing of 25,000,000 Golden Anniversary stamps has been authorized.

The central design of the new air mail stamp depicts the five New York City boroughs on a dark background, around which is a ring bearing the inscription, "1898 The City of New York 1948 Golden Anniversary" in dark Roman. Circling the ring are seven modern airplanes.

Stamp collectors desiring first-day cancellations of this stamp may send a limited number of addressed envelopes, not in excess of 10, to the Postmaster, New York, N.Y. with postal note or money order remittance to cover the cost of stamps to be affixed.

AMVETS To Pick 'Miss Arlington' And Present 'Iron Lung' To Town At Town Hall Dance Tomorrow

With some lucky girl to be chosen 'Miss Arlington' and given many fine gifts, a $500 television set to be awarded on shares and an "iron lung" to be presented to the town as a gift from the AMVETS, a packed town hall is expected tomorrow night, Friday, when the local AMVETS chapter stages its Charter Day dance.

Tomorrow night's dance will climax a drive of several weeks, during which members of the American Veterans of World War II, led by Commander Edward J. Reilly have campaigned to raise funds with which to purchase an "iron lung" for the use of Arlington residents.

The award of a television set, which will be made at the dance, has been one way of financing the "iron lung," and during an intermission in the dance the respirator will be presented by Commander Reilly jointly to the police and fire chiefs.

A dual attraction at the dance will be the presence of Ken Edwards' noted 15-piece orchestra, and Harold Russell as guest star. Russell, an amputee who lost both hands in the war, is currently starring in "The Best Years of Our Lives."

Shares on the television set, which was furnished absolutely free by Sam's Radio Store, 103 Cambridge St., Boston, will be sold right up to the last moment. This together with admissions to the dance itself, is expected to provide sufficient funds to pay for the "iron lung," which the police and firemen will have available for use of any Arlington resident needing it.

Keen interest, meanwhile, was being evidenced this week in the "Miss Arlington" contest.

"More entries are needed," said Commander Reilly. "Any young lady of pleasing personality is welcomed to enter. Entries in this competition will be received up to 9 tomorrow night, at town hall.

An impressive array of gifts was being rounded up this week-gifts which will be 'Miss Arlingtons' with no strings attached.

These gifts, all presented without charge by local merchants, included at press time: $15 sterling silver compact, from Beacon Jewelry; permanent wave, Center Beauty Shop; electric clock, Ken Atkinson; lingerie, Grace Alyce; presentation bouquet, Scotts Florists.

Woman Hurt On Street

Mrs. Molly Jansen, 60, of 1281 a Mass. Ave., was injured Friday afternoon when she stumbled and fell on the outboard safety isle in Arlington Center, opposite Medford St.

The police ambulance as called to the scene, but before its arrival a police cruiser had removed her to Symmes Hospital, where she was treated for contusions on the back of the head. Later she was taken home by the police.

Accepts Position
George W. Mernick Jr., son of Mrs. George W. Mernick of 20 Lovell St., Somerville, and formerly of Arlington, received a master's degree in business administration from Harvard Graduate School of Business. He has accepted a position with Gregg and Son, Inc., of Nashua, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Preston of 62 Park St. announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor Mary, to James J. Cusack of Cambridge.

Navy top-bracket softball teams will meet in New York City the week of Sept. 5, 1948, in competition for the All-Navy Softball Championship.

Martin's Now Is Air-Conditioned

With an aim to "please all of their customers all the time" Martin's Restaurant in Arlington Center has recently installed a modern air conditioning unit to add to the comfort of their many patrons. It's at least 20 degrees cooler in Martin's is the boast of the management.

A lot of changes have taken place at Martin's in the past three years. When the three Chamallas Chris. George and Nick brothers took over the restaurant in 1945 it was strictly a coffee and doughnut shop. They immediately made changes in the operation of the shop and today you may enjoy anything from a club breakfast to full course dinners. Delicious clams and scallops feature their summer menu.

Located at 681 Mass. Ave., the three brothers—all of Arlington—cordially invite their fellow town-folk to come in and enjoy a splendid meal in a cool atmosphere.

WISE VACATIONISTS are shopping here before they go to the shore or mountain resorts—and it's such a good idea that we recommend it to all our customers.

Buy your food supplies here AHEAD—for one week or for two weeks—and you'll find that our prices save you considerable over what you'd have to pay at resort stores. Then, too, you get EXACTLY what you want—the brands you're used to, the quality you're accustomed to—at sensible home town prices instead of inflated resort prices.
